Dear Mr. Dulles:

Invitations have gone out (see enclosure) for the foreign policy seminar our committee has scheduled for May 12th, and I trust this note will confirm the tentative arrangements heretofore made with you.

Needless to say all of us are looking forward to this event with keen anticipation.

Best personal regards.

Sincerely,

Dear Colleague;

A follow-up session on foreign policy has been a matter of live interest among most of the Members who replied to the questionnaire sent out by our committee after the Freshman Seminars last January.

We have, in response to this interest, arranged a session that we hope will enlarge your understanding of American foreign policy problems and offer you an opportunity for a give-and-take exchange with some of the leading figures in this field.

This meeting will begin at 6 PM, Tuesday, May 12 in the new Senators' Private Dining Room (Room G-211 in the New Senate Office Building).

There will be a film showing of "The Ruble War" -- an outstanding recent CBS news report -- and a dutch treat buffet dinner. This will be followed by a free discussion with Undersecretary of State C. Douglas Dillon and CIA Director Allan Dulles, covering any points in which the group is interested.

We are inviting all freshmen Congressmen of both parties. If you plan to attend, please call Ext. 4065 or 2231 by Friday, May 8.

Sincerely,

Gerald R. Ford, Jr.

Dear Mr. Udall:

Thank you very much for your letter of 5 May and the enclosure concerning the session on foreign policy to be held in the new Senators' Private Dining Room on 12 May.

I want to let you know that I greatly appreciate the opportunity to join you and am looking forward with much interest to this particular occasion.

With kindest regards.

Sincerely,

Allen W. Dulles
